ANÁHUAC MÉRIDA

SPANISH LANGUAGE IN YUCATÁN

International Bootcamp

Why Merida, Yucatan?

Yucatan, located in the southeast of Mexico, is considered one of the safest regions in the country. It outstands for its lifestyle, cultural flamboyance and excellent infrastructure in medical and educational services.

Merida, the capital of the state of Yucatan, is leader in Higher Education in the southeast region of the country. This colonial city with a strong Mayan cultural heritage has been named among the top places in the world to visit and the American Capital of Culture in 2000 and 2017.

The city is recognized for its calm and quiet lifestyle, bustling neighborhoods, rich cultural heritage and pollution-free environment. Merida is surrounded by many spectacular attractions both natural and cultural; from the beautiful beaches of the relaxed town of Progreso, to the world famous Mayan ruins of Uxmal, Mayapan and Chichen Itza. The options to discover great places near the capital are numerous.

Why Anahuac Mayab?

This will be the most exciting journey that you will experience in terms of learning Spanish and having a unique immersion in the Yucatecan culture. Surrounded by a diverse and international academic environment, with a transformative learning focus and enjoying Merida's cultural and gastronomic offering in the full swing of summer, you will be able to learn Spanish and live it!

“My exchange semester at Anáhuac Mérida was a once-in-a-lifetime experience! I learned so much about Mexican culture and cuisine, also I formed lifelong friendships. The university has an impressive, modern campus ... I highly recommend the experience of an exchange semester to everyone and I will never forget the memories I have made”.

Anna-Lena STEHN
West Coast University of Applied Sciences

“I loved my exchange experience. I really enjoyed learning a new language and discovering a new culture. I loved being able to travel and meet Mexican people with whom I made friends. The exchange was a great experience for me”.

Spanish, Culture & Immersion

Aimed at students interested in learning the language through active lessons, with real life experiences and in everyday situations, making your daily life in Merida easier.

Grammar: From the basic Spanish tenses to more complex and specific Spanish structures that will help the students nurture and perfect their Spanish.

Culture: How learning the history of Yucatan, Mexico and Latin America can help us understand the Spanish that is being spoken today.

Literature: Short stories written by female authors from Latin America and the Caribbean that require a profound literary analysis from the student.

Writing: How to express thoughts, ideas and opinions in written compositions and academic essays.

Speaking: From telling stories, anecdotes, ideas or even dreams, the oral expression abilities will be developed along the course.

You'll practice the language as you:

- Use public transportation
- Take part in a "jarana" lesson in which you will learn the traditional dance from "yucatecan vaquería"
- Shop at a local market
- Cook a traditional yucatecan meal
- Engage in discussions at the museum about history
